

Midterm

Write a research paper of 5 pages long based on the material learned so far - Why a manager need to be acquainted with Information Systems.

Topics should cover the materials so far discussed in the course including the role of manager and what information systems provide (benefit and problems), programming , webs view source, ethics, privacy, security and data (how manager and system protect the assets) and knowledge management (understanding of a database). Present each topic in a paragraph styles with a header. Make sure to include a one paragraph abstraction (introduction) and one paragraph personal conclusion. Your paper should have at least 5 citations with references. Try to include scholarly journals.